Spend a million-
You will each be given a million dollar note- Woo Hoo!
You need to spend it all !!!!!!!

There are however some conditions attached.

*You must spend the million to the exact cent.
#noexcuses
*You cannot buy more than one of any item.
*You must buy at least seven different options.
*You must have a picture or screen capture of every item.
*You need to keep an itemised list of purchases and prices in a table or spreadsheet
*You need to check your calculations carefully before presenting to your teacher

Reflection:
How easy was it to spend your million dollars?

Write some questions about this activity-

How might.........................?
Could I...............................?
What if...............................?
I’m not sure..........................?