Andrew's spelling is improving. He still mixes up long and short vowels, however. His mother has bought him two huge socks to sort them. Help him do this before his mother gets home.

Words: back, take, cake, sack, bit, kit, bite, bone, lone, home, grub, fog, sit, white, tack, date, gate, dog, bake, lack, fit, rake, hit, rack, lake, make, wake, lit, cone, pit, phone, kite, tone, state, hate, tub, bog, cub, late, cube, tube, sat, hat, mate, fat, hum, bag, ham, like

Short Vowels

Long Vowels

Do you think you can help Andrew work out a rule to help him with long and short vowels?